Objektbeschreibung

Straightforward aesthetics and puristic elegance - these two new buildings in the middle of the culturally vibrant Berlin district of Charlottenburg offer the highest level of living comfort in a quiet inner courtyard location.

Here, a timelessly modern condominium presents itself on an area of approx. 50m² on the 1st floor, comfortably accessible by lift. High-quality furnishings, a clever spatial concept and an outdoor area in front in the form of a balcony lend the flat maximum comfort and balanced functionality. The rooms shine brightly thanks to the floor-to-ceiling windows. These have integrated sun protection and allow an undisturbed view of the landscaped outdoor area.

The new building ensemble consisting of Haus Schiller and Haus Bismarck integrates seamlessly into the secluded inner courtyard. The sheltered location offers privacy and security at the same time. The building concept naturally includes a lift as well as the building's own underground car park and bicycle parking spaces.

Location

Charlottenburg is an exclusive district in Berlin's west characterised by pre-war buildings, dignified parks, upper-class shopping locations and boutiques, mid-priced to upscale gastronomy, galleries and antique shops, museums, theatres and concert stages. The district's most famous street, Kurfürstendamm, is a tourist focal point and offers a wide range of shops and culture. Bismarckstrasse and Wilmersdorfer Strasse also leave little to be desired.

The new building is located between Ernst-Reuter-Platz and Sophie-Charlotte-Platz, surrounded by cultural and student life. All shops for daily needs, a DIY store and fitness studios are within walking distance.

Relaxation from the busy City West is not neglected either: Lietzenseepark is only a few minutes away and Charlottenburg Palace Park, the Tiergarten, the Zoological Garden and the River Spree are also not far away.

The transport links are optimal: Underground line 2 quickly connects Alexanderplatz to the east of Berlin and the nearby Charlottenburg S-Bahn station to the main railway station. By car, you can quickly reach the A100 and thus also the A10 and subsequently the A9 to Munich and the A24 to Hamburg.
